

Master in “Euromediterranean Cultures and Tourism – E.M.C.T” (2014-2019).
Implementation Agreement.

Art. 1 - Within the framework of the agreement “CMU-OMU Label” Study Programme of collaboration between the Ondokuz Mayıs University (OMU) and the Community of Mediterranean Universities (CMU)/Unesco Unitwin Chair, NGO recognized by Unesco and Associate with UNAI, it is decided to implement the “Euromediterranean Cultures and Tourism – E.M.C.T”;

Art. 2 - The CMU and the OMU are the Leading Institutions of the proposed Master;

Art. 3 - A “Joint Committee” will organise the list of the teaching modules specifying the different activities to be performed, such as front lectures, laboratories, stages, self-learning etc.; subsequently it will be replaced by the “Faculty” established by the Teachers participating in the Master.

The Faculty will be involved in:

- issuing in the meantime an international call for students coming from OMU and the CMU’s adhering universities or international partnership, advertised also by international media;
- recruiting the teaching staff from OMU’s and CMU’s adhering universities or international partnership;
- assigning to recruited teachers the didactic activities;
- fixing the number of students to be admitted and the procedures to be set up;

Art. 4 - The CMU agrees to carry out the activities assigned on the basis of Art. 3 of the Agreement “CMU-OMU Label” Study Programme;

Art. 5 - The OMU agrees to carry out the activities assigned on the basis of Art. 4 of the Agreement “CMU-OMU Label” Study Programme;

Art. 6 – The Master Programme is scheduled in 1.500 hours, of which about approximately 300 hours should concern front lecturing; the Joint Committee and/or the Faculty will define the self-and online-learning activities, stage periods and the procedures for the final dissertation.

The planned 300 hours of front lecturing (8 hours/day, 5 days a week) will be carried out by approximately 20 teachers;

Art.7 – The total amount of the fees collected by both CMU and OMU will cover all the expenses and the surplus/deficit will be equally assigned to the Leading Institutions;

Art. 8 – Fees, board and accommodation should be paid by the students.

Stationery, the use of classrooms, labs, e-learning costs and anything needed for implementing the didactic activities will be covered, free of charge, by the fees of the students;

Art. 9 - The travel, board and accommodation expenses for the teachers should be covered by the tuitions of the students; alternatively the Associate Institutions will cover the travel expenses of their own teachers (see art. 11 & 12 of the present agreement);

Art. 10 - Any additional cost will be covered by the Leading Institutions unless some funds become available from public bodies, private organizations and/or donors. Any revenue will be equally assigned to the Leading Institutions;

Art. 11 - Any other University, which should ask to participate in implementing the present master and is willing to sign its diploma, will be allowed to participate as "Associate Institution" provided that the Joint Committee or the Faculty will agree;

Art. 12 - The Associate Institutions may propose teachers in the Faculty. The Associate Institutions are supposed to contribute to cover the expenses of their teachers. Furthermore the Associate Institutions could accept to perform some on-line teaching activities;

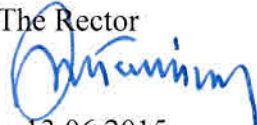

Art. 13 - The meetings of the Faculty can occur also through on-line conferences;

Art. 14 - The obligations for each Leading as well as Associate Institutions are described at the art. 3 and 4 of the Agreement "CMU-OMU Label" Study Programme;

Art. 15 - The OMU and the CMU look after advertising the EMCT Master.
